What's expected of you in Churchill House?

Churchill house prides itself on being the best!

We demand the best behaviour, attendance and effort from all of you.

Every student in Churchill House should strive to do their best in every situation and this should be reflected in class, on the corridors and outside of school.

You WILL be challenged if you do not maintain these standards as it will let the House down.

What's expected of you in Churchill House?

Ensure you arrive on time to school and in the correct uniform.
Treat others in the Form with respect – you are a small family (Form) within a larger family (House).

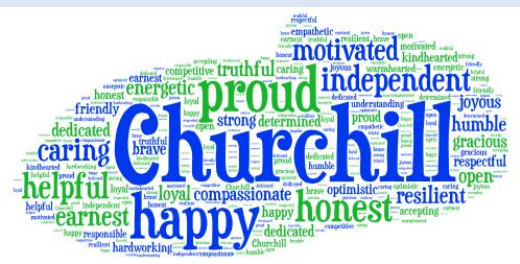

Strive to achieve your best at all time. Quizzes, sports, homework, lessons etc

Registration should be treated like any other lesson – you should get involved, work openly with other students and focus.

The more you put in, the more you will get out of it.

Planners – need to be kept free of graffiti and signed every week by a Parent/Guardian. I will sign them every Monday.

Use your planner to help you be organised – I will help you do this. Write down your home learning and look out for lots of merits!

It is YOUR responsibility to look after your planner.

Assembly – Wednesday is our assembly day. You need to come to your form room as usual before the bell at 8.40am.

We will go to assembly together and enter LMH in silence and with coats off.

You will have an allocated seat in which you must always sit for assembly unless otherwise told.
