Sheffield Children's Book Awards 2020

This week Mrs Bird has read 'No ballet shoes in Syria' by Catherine Bruton

A moving story about a small girl and a big issue. 11-year-old Aya arrives in Britain seeking asylum from war torn Syria. While trying to fit in to her new life, Aya discovers that she has an exceptional talent for ballet and has the potential to earn a scholarship. However, Aya and her family must fight to remain in the country and be reunited with their father, separated from them during their arduous journey from their home country. A perfect balance of tragedy and triumph.

Carers Week 8th – 14th June

Help to support carers in Sheffield by supporting the Do you care? campaign. The campaign aims to raise awareness of the 65,000 unpaid carers in Sheffield (between the ages of 5 and 95) and to help them access the support they are entitled to.

You can support the campaign by:

1. Following on social media (Tw: @SheffYoungC, FB: @SheffieldYoungCarers, Insta: sheffyoungc)
2. Posting, re-tweeting and sharing as many campaign posts as you can, using the hashtag #doyoucareSheffield
3. Visiting www.doyoucare.co.uk (from Monday 8th June) to show you care for carers too.
